

JOINT OWNERSHIP ELECTION FORM

O-1 Version 2009-11-15

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

This form is used to change the ownership of a brand from co-ownership to joint ownership when a brand is owned by more than one person and all owners are over 18 years of age. If any of the brand owners are under 18 years of age please contact LIS for the appropriate forms.

If two or more persons are joint owners of a brand, each person owns an undivided interest in the brand and has a "right of survivorship". Upon the death of one joint owner, the other owner(s) has ownership of the brand. On the death of one joint owner, the brand can be transferred to the survivor(s) by the surviving joint owner(s) filing with the Brand Registrar a Statutory Declaration of Surviving Joint Brand Owner along with satisfactory proof of death of the deceased joint owner.

If two or more persons are co-owners of a brand, each person owns an undivided interest in the brand and, upon the death of one of the co-owners, the legal requirements governing wills and estates must be followed to transfer the deceased's interest (ownership) in the brand. Whether the deceased's interest in the brand will go to the co-owner or to another person will be determined by any Designation of Beneficiary Form filed with the Brand Registrar, the deceased's Will or, if there is no Designation of Beneficiary Form or Will, on the laws governing intestate succession.

To complete this form, please do the following:

1. Enter the name, address, postal code, telephone number(s), fax number and e-mail address of each owner in the space provided.
2. If there are more than two owners of the brand please complete the "Additional Brand Owners" contact information and signature form and attach as many copies of the form as are required.
3. Draw the brand design and indicate the location and animal type for the brand on all forms.
4. Each owner must appear before a Commissioner for Oaths (if the form is signed in Alberta) or before a Notary Public (if the form is signed outside Alberta) to complete the Certificate of Identity of Brand Owner. One Certificate must be completed for each brand owner.
5. In order to verify each owner's identity, the Commissioner for Oaths or Notary Public must examine an original piece of valid government issued identification (the identity document). Information and instructions with respect to the Certificate of Verification of Identity are attached. If you do not have one of the listed identity documents please contact LIS.

Once completed, please mail one signed copy of this form, any Additional Brand Owners forms and the existing Brand Certificate to the address noted below. Once this Election Form is processed, the LIS database will be updated to show that the brand is owned jointly and a new Brand Certificate showing the owners as joint owners will be mailed to the person listed as Brand Owner 1.

being the registered owners of the following brand:

Brand Design	Location	Type
		<input type="checkbox"/> Cattle <input type="checkbox"/> Horse for good and valuable consideration, do hereby elect to change the status of our ownership of the above noted brand from co-ownership to joint ownership.

We hereby acknowledge and agree that, as a result of this election:

1. The persons registered as owners of the above brand continue to own an undivided interest in the brand.
2. The persons registered as owners of the above brand have the "right of survivorship" and that upon the death of one joint owner, his or her interest in the brand will pass to the other joint owner(s), and this process will continue until there is only one survivor, who then will hold the brand as the sole owner.
3. The persons registered as owners of the above brand are all required to comply with the provisions of the Livestock Identification and Commerce Act and the Livestock Identification and Commerce General Regulation when transporting or selling the livestock bearing the above brand.

4. The joint ownership of the brand is for the sole purpose of simplifying the transfer of the brand on death of one of the joint brand owner(s).
5. On the death of one of the joint owners, the surviving joint owner(s) may file a Statutory Declaration of Surviving Joint Owner(s) and satisfactory proof of death with the Brand Registrar. On approval of the documents submitted by the surviving joint owner(s), the Brand Registrar will register the brand in the name(s) of the surviving joint owner(s).

We further acknowledge that under the Livestock identification and Commerce Act:

1. The persons registered as the owners of the above brand have the exclusive right to use the brand for the purpose of denoting ownership of livestock until the registration of the brand is cancelled or the brand transferred. During that period the mark of the brand on livestock is proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the brand owners' ownership of the livestock bearing the brand.
2. Any livestock bearing the above brand must be sold in the names of, or on behalf of, all of the owners of the brand. If not, the livestock or the sale proceeds may be held pending the Livestock Inspector being satisfied that the person in possession of the livestock is the owner of the livestock, the owner's agent or otherwise lawfully entitled to be in possession of the livestock or entitled to the sale proceeds.
3. The owners of the livestock are required to complete the livestock security interest declaration when livestock is transported for sale or sold.
4. The sale proceeds must be payable to all of the owners of the brand and the holder of any livestock security interest in the livestock or the dam of the livestock being sold.
5. If the livestock is being transported for sale and the livestock manifest does not direct payment to all of the owners of the brand, the Livestock Inspector will hold the livestock or the sale proceeds until all of the owners of the brand sign the livestock manifest.
