

Administration of the Legislation

Whose legislation is it?

The legislation is the Government of Alberta's with the Minister responsible being the Minister of Agriculture and Food.

Who will administer the legislation?

The legislation will continue to be administered by Livestock Identification Services Ltd. ("LIS"). LIS is a not-for-profit company established in 1998 as the delegated authority for the livestock identification legislation.

LIS is governed by an industry board of directors comprised of representatives from several Alberta cattle and horse associations.